

KeeKee's Big Adventures: Seek & Find

Washington, D.C. - National Mall & Museums

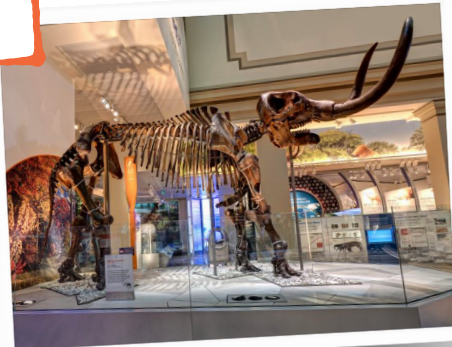

See if you can find these things as you explore the Nation's Capital

Find them all!
Check the boxes once
you've seen them!

Washington Monument
National Mall

Built to honor the 1st President of the US, George Washington. The shape is called an obelisk.

Dinosaur Bones

National Museum of Natural History

See bones of dinosaurs that were in the US. millions of years ago, including T. Rex, Triceratops, and Mastodon (in photo).

Apollo 11 Command Module
National Air & Space Museum

Where the astronauts lived during the first moon landing mission.

White House
National Mall

This is where the President of the United States lives and works.

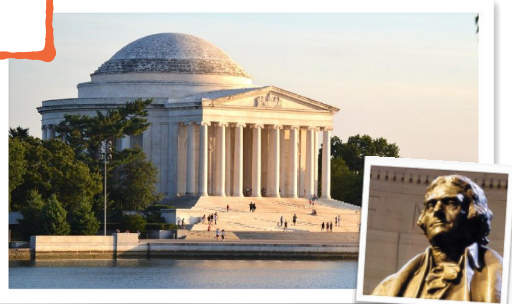

Paddle Boat Rental
Tidal Basin

Between Spring and Fall you can rent paddle boats at the Tidal Basin.

U.S. Capitol Building
National Mall

This is where the Senate and House of Representatives work.

Thomas Jefferson

Jefferson Memorial, Tidal Basin

Honors the 3rd president of the United States. The design of the building looks like the Parthenon in Rome, Italy.

Abraham Lincoln

Lincoln Memorial, National Mall

Honors the 16th president of the United States. The building was designed to look like the Parthenon in Athens Greece.

Washington DC Flag

Around the District

Look for the Washington DC flag as you explore the district.

Get more family travel information and activities at AAA.com/Family-Travel

