Lifesaving Medal Award Winners

This is the most prestigious award presented to a AAA School Safety Patroller for saving the life of another while on duty.

AAA Club Alliance had the only winners in the entire country.

Vedanth (Ved), Brianna, and Reagan were on patrol at Hanover Hills Elementary (Hanover, MD) when a fellow Patroller suffered a seizure. While one of them guided her safely to the ground, the other two sought help from staff. Together the Patrollers secured the area and redirected nearby students, preserving the young girl's privacy and maintaining calm until help arrived.

Jefferson Reyes, a Patroller at Rolling Terrace Elementary (Takoma Park, MD) was on duty during dismissal when he saw a young child break away from their parent and run toward an active bus lane. Reyes sprinted to the child and pulled them out of harm's way. His quick action prevented potentially tragic consequences.

Congrats!

Are you planning a
Ruby Bridges Walk to School Day?

November 14th is Ruby Bridges Walk to School Day, a movement started by a class of AAA School Safety Patrollers after learning about Ruby's brave, history-making walk to school in 1960. This student-led initiative empowers children to make positive changes by encouraging them to come together—to listen, learn, and ultimately, champion one another.
