

Alaska Railroad
Riding the Alaska Railroad, you'll see wild animals, sparkling glaciers, and maybe even the shimmering Northern Lights, all from your cozy train seat.

Seal Lions, Puffins & More
Some fun creatures you may see in Alaska include the sea lion, puffin, and Beluga whale. There are also bears, eagles, moose, caribou (a type of deer), and more!

Ride A Dogsled
A dogsled is a sled pulled by a team of dogs. It has been a traditional way to get around on the snow. The name of a person that steers a dogsled is called a Musher! You can help be a musher when you visit Alaska.

Whale Watching
In Alaska, you can see humpback whales, orcas, and gray whales - from land, tour boats, and even close-up from a kayak!

Panning For Gold
Eureka! In the 1930s, prospectors would find gold in the streams. Now, panning for gold is for fun instead of trying to strike it rich!

Eureka!

The word Eureka! (yoo-REEkah!) is a Greek word that means "I have found it."

In the 1800s, when gold was being discovered in California, if someone found gold, they would yell "Eureka!" to announce their discovery. You can use the word Eureka when you make a happy discovery!
