PROVIDENT TRAVEL

Travel is about more than the destination. Every journey within Provident Travel's Group Collection is thoughtfully designed to reveal the extraordinary and help you experience it more authentically.

Picture the pink and gold sunrise over Santorini's whitewashed buildings. Hear the quiet glide of your ship sailing through the Danube's Iron Gates. Savor a smooth glass of Port wine, sourced from a centuries-old vineyard. These are more than destinations. They are experiences layered with history, culture, and beauty.

When you go with Provident Travel, every detail is considered, every path expertly guided. All you have to do is arrive and let the journey unfold.

Start planning with a Provident Travel Specialist today.

Activity Level Details

All cruises, tours, and motorcoach departures require the ability to get in and out of transportation as needed, occasionally stand for longer durations, climb stairs or walk up inclines, and manage your luggage when necessary.

Each trip will have an indication of required activity level details:

Activity Level One

- Leisurely to average physical activity.
- Should be able to climb stairs and walk reasonable distances, possibly over uneven ground.
- Intended for travelers comfortable with three to five hours of physical activity per day.
- Itinerary may include early morning departures.
- All conditions do not apply to all days so please read the itinerary carefully and speak to your Provident Group Travel Specialist for additional details.

Activity Level Two

- Moderate physical activity.
- Passengers should be comfortable with seven to eight hours of physical activity per day. The itinerary may have demanding schedules some days and some days with more leisure time.
- Itinerary may include active walking and longer distances, possibly over uneven ground. Can also include longer periods of standing.
- Itinerary may include early morning departures.
- All conditions do not apply to all days so please read the itinerary carefully and speak to your Provident Group Travel Specialist for additional details.

Activity Level Three

- A very active itinerary, considered "on the go."
- Trip usually consists of a full itinerary of sightseeing and events.
- Activities may include extensive walking, early morning departures, late night activities, and/or extreme temperatures.
- All conditions do not apply to all days so please read the itinerary carefully and speak to your Provident Group Travel Specialist for additional details.
