Winner - Corporate (Small & Medium Enterprise) Category

C K Holdings (2003) Pte Ltd
Nominated by St John Singapore

“Charitable giving helps others and eliminates the greed in you.”
- Ang Chin Koon, Founder

C K Holdings (2003) Pte Ltd operates the myCK Department Store. Founded in 1997 by Mr Ang Chin Koon, myCK Department Store is a heartland retail chain located across the nation, offering a wide range of everyday essentials.

C K Holdings has been volunteering with St John Singapore and supporting them with funds for more than 10 years. C K was active in supporting St John Singapore in starting their Dementia Care Centre as well as the renovations required to expand this service. Over the past decade, they have also actively contributed more than S$1 million to Community Care Organisations such as Tzu Chi Foundation Singapore, Metta Welfare Association, and Kampung Senang Charity & Education Foundation, demonstrating their commitment to providing care for the underprivileged elderly.

The company's journey from humble beginnings in the "pasar malam" environment to success in the business community reflects an unwavering sense of responsibility and volunteerism. Through C K's efforts, C K has attracted donations and inspired other businessmen to join the Community Care advocacy, making a lasting impact in creating positive change for the community.
