Introducing the new Run'em Twice Poker™, a unique five-card poker game that lets players engage in two poker hands in one game. It's just you against a payable and not the dealer or other players. Run'em Twice Poker offers the optional 5-Card Bonus and Ultimate Pairs Bonus wagers. Run'em Twice Poker also offers an optional or mandatory (per house policy) progressive wager.

GETTING STARTED

Place equal wagers on both the "1st Ante," and "2nd Ante" bet spots. You may also place a bet on the 5-Card Bonus and Ultimate Pairs Bonus wagers. The dealer will position five community cards face down on the layout and give each player their two-card hand face down.

DECISION TIME

After looking at your two-card hand the decision is yours: you can bet 1x to 3x your 1st Ante wager on the "1st Run" bet spot or fold. The dealer will reveal the two cards associated with the 1st Ante. You now have an option to place a wager of 1x to 3x your 2nd Ante on the "2nd Run" bet spot or fold. The dealer will reveal the two cards associated with the 2nd Ante. Your final decision is to place a wager of 1x to 3x on the Center spot or fold.

Note: If you fold, you will forfeit any base game wagers made to that point. Your 5-Card Bonus and Ultimate Pairs Bonus wagers remain in action and are resolved at the end of the round.

WINNING AND LOSING

After the dealer reveals the center card, all remaining wagers are resolved. You win if your initial two cards combined with either the three cards of the "1st" line or the three cards of the "2nd" line contains a pair of Jack's or better. See payable for odds. Note: Pair of 6's through 10's will push.

5-CARD BONUS

5-Card Bonus payouts are based on the 5 Community Cards ONLY. See payable for odds.

ULTIMATE PAIRS BONUS

The Ultimate Pairs Bonus wager wins if your two-hole card hand matches one listed on the posted payable. See payable for odds.

PROGRESSIVE PAYOUTS

Progressive winners are determined by combining the Player's two-hole cards with either the three 1st Run cards, or the 2nd Run cards. The progressive wager qualifies you for payouts from the progressive jackpot. See payable for odds.
