

World leading ENRI practice

Our global ENRI practice has been recognized with multiple awards by prominent industry publications and league tables over the last year, reflecting not just the hard work done by the whole team, but the insights and knowledge that A&O Shearman provides to clients every day on and off deals.

The global highlights include:

*Global Legal Adviser of the Year—
IJGlobal Awards*

*Most Influential Law Firm—
Clean Energy Pipeline*

Global Law Firm of the Year—Proximo

*No 1 by deal volume—
Clean Energy Pipeline*

In addition to these global awards the ENRI group advised on over 40 award winning transactions and has been recognised multiple times for our regional excellence.

On the recognition, David Lee, Co-Head of the ENRI group, says:

“It’s always amazing when we reflect on what the A&O Shearman global energy, natural resources and infrastructure team has achieved, how the sector is being reshaped, and the role our firm is playing in redesigning the world’s energy systems, infrastructure networks and supporting supply chains.”

Cynthia Urda Kassis, Co-Head of the ENRI group, comments :

“No other law firm has the ability to cover the new energy markets the way we do – from projects for the extraction of minerals through processing of those minerals to their use in new energy systems, we are able to help our clients across the whole energy market.”

Kent Rowey, Co-Head of the ENRI group, adds :

“We are very proud of the role we played in helping our clients achieve these great outcomes. No matter the sector or region, our ENRI lawyers will be able to develop solutions on the most complicated deals.”
