

Member News

Growing your super over the long term

A high-performing investment option will help grow your super over the long term.

Here's how

Understanding your Annual Statement

If you only check your super once a year, there's no better time than when you get your Annual Statement. There are some important things to look for when you do.

What to look for

Turning your super into income in retirement

There are no rules for when you can retire in Australia, but before you leave the workforce, you should know when – and how – you can access your super.

Read more

ART and AirTrunk – an Australian success story

AirTrunk – a data centre operator – recently changed hands in a $24 billion mega-deal. It's a great result for our members.

Find out why

How much super should you have at your age?

Knowing what your super balance should be for your age can help you prepare for your best retirement. See how your super savings compare to the average super balance by age.

How do you compare?

New parents set for a super boost

New parents are set to receive to welcome boost to their paid parental leave from 1 July next year.

Find out more

