

ECOflo

Overview of the ECOflo

Focusing on the installation requirements, commissioning, and maintenance of the Andrews ECOflo Water Heaters.

Key benefits include:

- Practical hands on training available at our UK training academy
- Online training via Microsoft Teams providing flexibility and integrating into your working day
- This course is free of charge
- Our training courses are designed with safety and efficiency in mind
- Question and Answers sessions providing you with the opportunity to explore specific topics and any questions you may have
- Develop your skills through our comprehensive training
- Hints and tips on installation and maintenance
- Certificate on completion of your course

After attending you should be able to:

- Understand installation requirements
- Identify flue types and flue accessories
- Check the electric connections
- Remove and replace key components
- Understand the sequence of operation
- Flue gas analyse and adjust the combustion
- Commission the appliance
- Find and identify faults

Courses are suitable for individuals who:

- Carry out product upgrades or installations
- Undertake servicing or maintenance
- Carry out commissioning
- All attendees must be Commercial Gas Safe registered

Discuss your training requirements today

If you wish to discuss your bespoke or individual training requirements, please email commercialtraining@baxiheating.co.uk or speak to one of our team on 0344 335 4207

Training Academy:

Online Academy via Microsoft Teams

Warwick Training Academy, Brooks House,
Coventry Road, Warwick CV34 4LL

To book your training course today, please visit www.andrewswaterheaters.co.uk/training

Andrews. Built to perform.