

Quinta Ace and an overview of the Gas 120 Ace training course

This course focuses on the installation requirements, commissioning and maintenance of the Remeha Quinta Ace, and an overview of the Remeha Gas 120 Ace. To book your training course today, please visit baxi.co.uk/remehatraining

Key benefits include:

- Practical hands on training available at our UK training academy
- Online training via Microsoft Teams providing flexibility and integrating into your working day
- This course is free of charge
- Question and Answers sessions providing you with the opportunity to explore specific topics and any questions you may have
- Develop your skills through our comprehensive training
- Hints and tips on installation and maintenance
- Certificate on completion of your course

After attending you should be able to:

- Understand installation requirements
- Identify flue types and flue accessories
- Check the electric connections
- Remove and replace key components
- Understand the sequence of operation
- Flue gas analyse and adjust the combustion
- Commission the appliance
- Find and identify faults

Courses are suitable for individuals who:

- Carry out product upgrades or installations
- Undertake servicing or maintenance
- Carry out commissioning
- All attendees must be Commercial Gas Safe registered

Discuss your training requirements today

If you wish to discuss your bespoke or individual training requirements, please email commercialtraining@baxiheating.co.uk or speak to one of our team on 0344 335 4207

Solutions Academy

Online Academy via Microsoft Teams

Warwick Centre of Excellence, Brooks House, Coventry Road, Warwick CV34 4LL