

LUBE MOBILE

Mobile Mechanic — Work Your Way

A better way to work as a mechanic.

You know the trade. But maybe you're over the same workshop routine.

Same four walls, same repetitive jobs, same pressure every day.

Lube Mobile offers qualified mechanics a more varied and rewarding way to work.

More movement, more variety and real customers, backed by the support of a trusted national brand.

This is still real mechanical work.

Just in a way that feels better day to day.

We're looking for experienced trade-qualified mechanics who are ready for a better way to work.

What's Different About Lube Mobile

- Strong earning potential: Competitive base salary starting at A$79,000/year, with additional super annuation, bonus opportunities and Bridgestone employee benefits.
 - Better support: Your jobs are booked for you, with national systems, technical support and a dedicated contact centre behind you.
 - More variety, less workshop repetition: Different customers. Different locations. Different challenges. Spend less time stuck in the same environment every day.
 - Work that feels like yours: Your territory, your customers, your results. You'll build genuine relationships with the people you service.
 - Real customer connection: You see the impact of your work directly and build trust with customers face to face.
 - Set up for success from day one: We keep your van maintained, fuelled, and equipped with the specialist tools you need, so you can focus on the job. Just bring your own hand tools.
 - Ongoing technical training: We stay current and so will you! A national team of trainers and managers supports you. Backed by regular access to internal and external training programs.
 - Backed by Bridgestone: One of the world's most recognised and trusted automotive brands supporting your tools, training and development.

What The Role Feels Like

No two days are the same.

One job might be diagnostics in a customer driveway. The next could be servicing, repairs or helping someone get back on the road quickly.

You'll spend your day:

- solving real problems
- working across different environments
- meeting customers directly

- and doing proper mechanical work with strong support behind you.

You're not stuck behind the same workshop doors every day.

You're out solving problems, helping customers and keeping them moving.

What Matters Most

We're looking for mechanics who:

- know their trade
- communicate well with customers
- put safety first
- take pride in their work
- and can manage their day professionally.

You don't need to be "salesy". But you do need to be comfortable talking to people and representing the brand well.

What You Will Need

- Trade qualified mechanic (Australian qualification or equivalent)
 - Post-apprenticeship hands-on experience
 - Current full manual driver's licence (or a genuine commitment to obtaining one before starting)
 - Customer-first attitude - you must be comfortable talking to people in their driveway, not just under their bonnet
 - Self-motivated and well-organised - you manage your day and your van each job reflects Lube Mobile's safety and quality standard s
