

The CTA Death & Dismemberment Plan

The CTA Death & Dismemberment Plan is an automatic benefit available to eligible CTA members at no additional cost. This benefit provides the member, or to his or her beneficiaries, a lump sum payment in the event the member passes away or suffers an accidental dismemberment. The Plan provides:

- $2,000 – Death Benefit
- $10,000 – Accidental Death/Accidental Dismemberment (AD&D) Benefit
- $50,000 – Occupation/Association Leader AD&D Benefit

If you pass away or suffer a dismemberment due to an accident or assault while at work or acting in the capacity of an Association Leader.

You may designate your beneficiaries by logging into www.CTAMemberBenefits.org and clicking on “Update Beneficiaries”, or “Beneficiary Registration” (under the insurance tab). If you do not register a beneficiary, or if your designated beneficiary passes away before you, the Plan will pay the lump sum benefit in the following order:

- 1) Spouse, or Domestic Partner
- 2) Children, in equal shares
- 3) Parents, in equal shares
- 4) Siblings, in equal shares
- 5) Executor, or Administrator

For questions or to file a claim, please contact the CTA Member Benefits Department by calling (650) 552-5200 or via email at MemberBenefits@cta.org.

This is a brief summary of the Plan. For a complete description of the Plan please refer to the booklet titled, CTA Death & Dismemberment Plan and Summary Plan Description. If you would like to request a copy please contact the CTA Member Benefits Department at (650) 552-5200 or email your request to SPD@cta.org and provide your full name and mailing address.

Underwritten by: The CTA Economics Benefits Trust
Administered by: The CTA Member Benefits Department

