

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST

FORMER GOODS SHED ARMIDALE

UGL Regional Linx Pty Ltd (UGLRL) operates and maintains the assets on the NSW Country Regional Network (CRN) under contract with Transport Asset Holding Entity of New South Wales (TAHE). TAHE has appointed Transport for NSW (TfNSW) as its agent with respect to the CRN and TfNSW manages the UGLRL contract.

On behalf of Transport for NSW, UGL Regional Linx requests non-binding Expression of Interest (“EOI”) Responses from interested parties for the potential occupation and/or future adaptive reuse of the former Goods Shed buildings and surrounding land in Armidale, NSW.

BACKGROUND

Transport for NSW on behalf of TAHE has identified the Premises as having the potential to leverage off its location within the Armidale railway precinct. Armidale is a country town in the Northern Tablelands of NSW, and it is administrative centre for the Northern Tablelands region. It is approximately halfway between Sydney and Brisbane at the junction of the New England Highway and Waterfall Way.

The site is located at 240 Brown Street at the corner with Barney Street within the fringe CBD and its location within the heritage railway station precinct location with excellent street frontages and easy access.

INFORMATION SOUGHT

Transport for NSW envisages that Responses will include details sufficient to assess as a minimum, the suitability and ability of Applicants to obtain and perform any necessary approvals or works to make the site suitable for its intended use. The Applicants suitability for the Premises, the rail precinct and highlight any benefits to the local community your proposal may include by being located within the Premises.

All responses must be made via the link below before COB 12th November 2023
