Re: Experiment in Syndication of Half-Hour Series in Markets Representing 50% or Fewer of U.S. Television Households

Dear Carol:

Reference is made to the provisions of Article 7., Section B.1.(b) of the FLTTA. During the 2002 negotiations, the Employers expressed a concern that if a series could only be syndicated in markets representing 50% or fewer of the U.S. television households, residuals payable pursuant to Article 7., Section B.1.(b) of the FLTTA would render such syndication fiscally untenable. The Employers asserted that the payment of any residuals in such circumstances would benefit both the Employer and the individual directors since no payments are presently made.

While the DGA expressed concern that an accommodation might be subject to abuse or otherwise reduce overall syndication residuals, the parties agreed to an experiment for the term of this Agreement, to be reviewed by June 30, 2014 to determine its effectiveness and whether or not it should be extended. In such regard, the Employers agree to provide the DGA with license fee information at the time of the first payment hereunder.

When a half-hour series is syndicated in markets representing in the aggregate fifty percent (50%) or fewer of U.S. television households, residuals for such series shall be payable at twenty percent (20%) of the "applicable minimum" under the FLTTA for each such run but shall not constitute a "run" for purposes of Article 7., Section B.1.(b) of the FLTTA.

If the series is further syndicated and the aggregate of the markets in which the series is syndicated exceeds fifty percent (50%) of the U.S. television households, the payments required pursuant to Article 7., Section B.1.(b) of the FLTTA shall be due on any subsequent runs.
