

DLA PIPER ISRAEL GROUP

Day-to-Day Services

Global legal solutions since 2009

Since its establishment in 2009, DLA Piper's Israel Group has served as a trusted advisor to Israeli companies and investors navigating the global legal and business landscapes. The team aims to help clients achieve their strategic business objectives with efficiency, precision, and a deep understanding of global markets.

The Israel Group operates as an extension of its clients' teams, fostering enduring partnerships that span day-to-day legal matters, key projects, and complex cross-border transactions. Each month, we advise dozens of companies and investors across more than 40 jurisdictions, delivering timely, practical solutions to their most pressing business challenges.

Below is an overview of our global service offerings.

Artificial Intelligence

- Counsel companies across the artificial intelligence (AI) ecosystem, including developers of AI technologies, investors, and established businesses implementing AI solutions
- Assist in procuring and contracting for AI-enabled systems and services, including advising on intellectual property (IP) strategies, data management and cybersecurity, privacy laws and data protection, liability for operators and users of AI systems, and issues of ethics and transparency
- Advise on responsible use of AI-enabled technology, consistent with current and potential future regulatory obligations

Commercial

- Advise companies in negotiating and structuring relationships and contracts with suppliers, customers, licensors, distributors, and other strategic partners
- Help companies navigate supply chain challenges, pursue innovative business models, and enter new markets
- Guide clients in developing and executing sustainable business models to accommodate market, legal, and regulatory changes

Corporate

- Support senior management, boards of directors, and special committees of public companies on securities and governance matters, including the preparation and filing of periodic reports; establishing procedures for managing regulatory requirements; complying with public listing standards; and guiding foreign private issuers through reporting requirements and governance matters
- Help execute deals across venture capital, equity capital markets (e.g., crossovers, initial public offerings, dual listings, equity lines of credit, and follow-ons/secondaries, among others), convertible notes, debt capital markets (investment-grade and high-yield), mergers and acquisitions (M&A), go-private transactions, and alternative public offerings (e.g., de-SPACs, reverse mergers, and direct listings)
- Advise all types of buyers, sellers, and financial advisors, including public and private companies, private equity, venture investors, and management teams, on every stage of M&A – from strategic planning through to post-close integration, as well as on joint ventures and strategic alliances
- Manage global post-acquisition integration and restructuring processes, including complex multi-jurisdictional reorganizations

Data, Privacy, and Cybersecurity

- Advise on all cybersecurity issues, from building cyber resilience to incident response and post-incident remediation
- Design and implement global privacy and security programs, including conducting audit and risk assessments, developing global policies, and implementing international data transfer strategies
- Advise on data protection issues relating to direct marketing, cookies, and online behavioral advertising, including risk mitigation strategies

Employment

- Help clients engage employees in new and existing jurisdictions, assisting in background checks, application forms, employment and independent contractor agreements, non-compete and proprietary information agreements, global equity, and benefits setup
- Draft policies and procedures, including global and local codes of conduct and social responsibility, workplace privacy, and global mobility policies
- Advise on day-to-day human resources issues related to existing employees, including discrimination, harassment, and termination
- Support transaction-related employment issues, including M&A, corporate reorganizations, and post-acquisition plans
- Design and implement all tax, corporate, and commercial aspects of executive and employee compensation structures
- Advise on employment of record (EOR) arrangements, including risk assessment, compliance with local labor laws, onboarding processes, and coordination with third-party EOR providers to support global workforce expansion

Intellectual Property

- Develop strategic approaches to trademark protection and enforcement, including advising on opposition, non-use, and infringement actions; assisting with commercial transactions; and providing litigation services. Establish, maintain, manage, and protect global trademark portfolios
- Develop strategies to protect, license, and exploit clients' IP assets, including structuring, drafting, and negotiating complex commercial and IP agreements (such as license agreements for IP, agreements for product distribution, manufacturing agreements, and purchase and supply agreements)
- Manage multi-jurisdictional patent disputes. Develop and implement global patent enforcement strategies for clients and strategically select suitable venues

Investment Management and Funds

- Assist founders, entrepreneurs, startups, emerging growth companies, angel and venture capital funds, corporate investors, and other institutional investors in their strategic transactions
- Represent private equity institutions, management teams, debt providers, and portfolio companies through all stages of the private equity cycle
- Advise investment management firms, alternative asset groups within global financial institutions, privately held advisors managing multibillion-dollar portfolios, boutique investment firms, and emerging managers on fund formation, capital raising, marketing, portfolio management, operational strategy, and exit planning

Litigation

- Counsel on litigation strategies, pre-litigation matters, and risk mitigation
- Help resolve complex and challenging legal issues across a broad spectrum of business and commercial litigation, including related to antitrust, healthcare, insurance, IP, data privacy, securities, contract and commercial torts, bankruptcy and insolvency, and employment, among others
- Manage large-scale challenges around the world, including complex global investigations and multi-jurisdictional collective litigation and arbitration matters
- Handle a wide range of internal and regulatory investigations into issues such as fraud, tax and accounting, financial misconduct, dawn raids, and bribery and corruption

Regulatory

- Counsel on antitrust implications and issues related to business practices, such as competitor collaborations, pricing practices, and use of competitive information
- Advise on all aspects of global compliance efforts, including designing, implementing, and assessing compliance programs; mitigating risk; detecting and investigating potential misconduct; and remediating compliance challenges, including those in high-risk countries
- Counsel on complex issues such as anti-bribery and anticorruption, anti-money laundering, antitrust, trade compliance, environmental compliance, conflicts of interest, executive misconduct, data privacy, and cybersecurity
- Advise on consumer protection issues such as false and deceptive advertising claims, social media compliance, and endorsements, as well as alleged violations of various US Federal Trade Commission, Federal Communications Commission, and Food and Drug Administration regulations

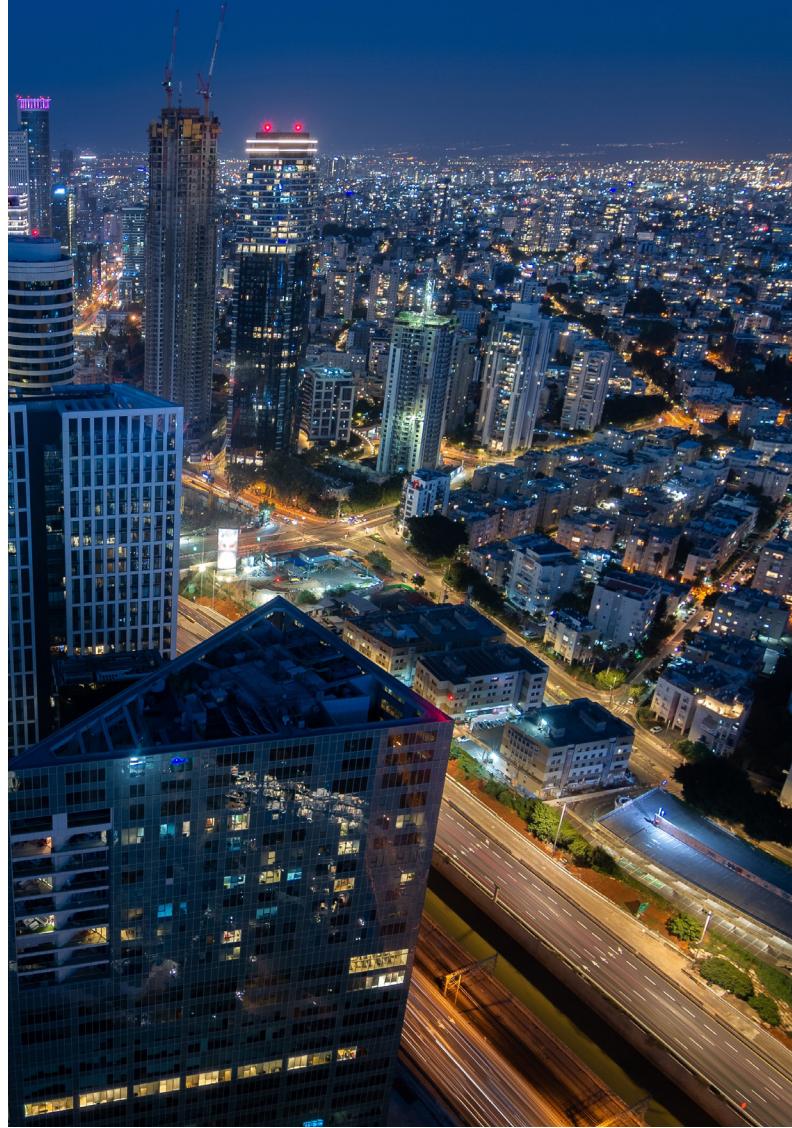

- Guide in the areas of product safety and regulation, cross-border distribution and enforcement, crisis management response, and industry trends, including label compliance, claims risk assessment, the Food Safety Modernization Act, and supply chain management
- Advise on regulations for advertising and marketing worldwide, including global campaigns, sweepstakes and contest promotions, loyalty programs, cross-promotion and co-branding, product labeling and packaging, anti-spam legislation, and review of advertising claims

National Security and Global Trade

- Support in global compliance issues affecting cross-border transactions including sanctions, import and export compliance, Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States, and anti-bribery and anticorruption issues
- Advise on complex compliance, licensing, and enforcement matters related to Export Administration Regulations, International Traffic in Arms Regulations, embargoes, and sanctions programs administered by the Office of Foreign Assets Control and the State Department, nuclear-related export controls, and anti-boycott regulations
- Counsel clients on company and investment strategy, developing and updating policies, procedures, and compliance structures. Conduct risk assessments and internal investigations, focusing on all applicable national security and foreign and public policy considerations to tailor best-in-class programs

Tax

- Advise on multi-jurisdictional corporate activities and cross-border transactions, including structuring M&A transactions to minimize overall tax burdens, developing effective tax structures for cross-border investments, providing tax planning solutions for pass-through entity investments, structuring private equity funds, and planning and implementing global business divestitures
- Guide the implementation of post-transaction tax and operational structures
- Advise on the international legal and tax aspects of the establishment of branch and subsidiary operations
- Provide analysis of state and local tax matters, particularly on questions of traditional, factor presence, and economic nexus; sales tax collection obligations; and taxation of service and e-commerce transactions (including digital products and services; multi-state apportionment; real estate transfer taxes; and unclaimed property compliance)

- Advise on value-added tax (VAT) issues, including planning techniques for minimizing irrevocable-input VAT, registration and compliance, negotiating settlements and appealing assessments, and customs duties

Real Estate

- Handle all types of real estate and real estate-related matters, from multibillion-dollar global portfolio and M&A transactions to the acquisition, financing, joint venture formation, leasing, and sale of single assets
- Represent lenders including debt funds, insurance companies, investment banks, commercial banks, and borrowers such as institutional investors, public real estate investment trusts, pension funds and pension advisors, and private equity funds
