

CASE STUDY: VERITION

ABOUT VERITION

Verition Fund Management LLC (Verition), is a multi-strategy, multi-manager hedge fund management firm that focuses on global investment strategies, including Credit, Fixed Income & Macro, Convertible & Volatility Arbitrage, Event-Driven, Equity Long/Short & Capital Markets, and Quantitative Strategies. Verition has a broad international footprint with offices in Connecticut, New York, London, Singapore, and Hong Kong.

The firm expanded its global presence with the addition of an office in the DIFC, confirming its commitment to the region. The UAE and the EMEA regions are important markets for Verition, which believes that its on-the-ground presence will further enhance the firm's ability to attract global investment talent as well as capture regional market opportunities.

ESTABLISHED: 2008
ESTABLISHED IN DIFC: 2023

“ We are excited to continue our international expansion with the addition of a Dubai office in DIFC. The opportunity to live and work in Dubai is especially appealing to our current and prospective portfolio managers. The region offers a friendly time zone for traders with a global investment mandate, lower taxes, and excellent infrastructure. We look forward to being an important part of a growing global investment hub in the EMEA region.

Josh Goldstein, Verition's
Co-Founder and President

WHY DIFC?

- Deepest regulated financial market in the region.
- Neutral location in the region for accessing more public and private wealth.
- Dubai has the highest amount of private wealth of any Middle Eastern city.
- World class legal and regulatory framework.
- Ideal time zone for traders handling global investments.
- Zero personal income tax and favourable company tax regime.
- High quality of life and safe place to live.