Professional Designation: Certified Financial Planner (CFP®)

This designation is issued by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. It is a voluntary certification recognized for its (1) high standard of professional education, (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice and (3) ethical requirements governing professional engagements with clients. A candidate for designation must obtain a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university with courses that included financial planning subject areas (e.g. insurance planning, risk management, employee benefits planning, investment planning, income tax planning, retirement planning and estate planning). Candidates must also have at least 3 years of full-time personal financial planning experience, measured as 2,000 hours per year. CFP® candidates must pass a comprehensive examination to test their ability to diagnose financial planning issues and apply their knowledge to real world circumstances. Candidates also agree to the Certified Financial Planner Board's Standards of Professional Conduct. Anyone earning designation as a CFP® must complete 30 hours of continuing education every two years to renew their designation.
