Equity Trustees Sydney key account manager appointment

Equity Trustees Limited has appointed Paul Sleiman as a key account manager in the Distribution Partners team. Mr Sleiman will report to Eliza Weaving, General Manager, Distribution Partners – Funds Management.

Based in Sydney, Mr Sleiman will be responsible for the development of adviser relationships in NSW and the distribution of funds for the investment managers represented by Equity Trustees including Dundas, La Salle and SG Hiscock.

He joins Equity Trustees from Perennial Investment Partners where he was an investment specialist responsible for business development and product distribution across various asset classes, in the NSW market.

Prior to this he was a market specialist associate at Commonwealth Bank.

"Paul's experience in business development and product distribution in the NSW market makes him a good fit with the Equity Trustees Distribution Partners Funds Management team," Ms Weaving said.

"This experience, as well as his proven track record in building and managing relationships, will contribute to building our presence in the NSW adviser market."

Mr Sleiman holds a Bachelor of Business, Economics and Finance from University of Western Sydney, a RG146 Core 1 accreditation from the Stockbrokers Association of Australia and a Masters in Applied Finance from Kaplan.
