Statement on ASIC Filing

Equity Trustees advises that civil proceedings in respect of the Shield Master Fund were filed today against Equity Trustee Superannuation Limited (ETSL), a subsidiary of EQT Holdings Limited, by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) in the Federal Court.

ASIC's lawyers have provided ETSL with copies of the court documents setting out the particulars of the claim.

ASIC's claim alleges that in respect of the Shield Master Fund, ETSL failed to meet the due diligence, monitoring and testing standards that ASIC considers should apply when a superannuation trustee makes a new investment product available for selection, or permits increased exposure to an investment product, by members and their financial advisers on a superannuation platform.

ETSL is considering ASIC's claim carefully and will respond on the substance of the claim in due course.

ETSL has fully cooperated with ASIC's investigations to date and continues to support impacted members by taking steps to maximise their recoveries from the liquidation process.

Equity Trustees is also providing regular updates and offering access to confidential counselling and wellbeing support to all impacted members.

Managing Director Mick O'Brien said: "Equity Trustees recognises the deeply difficult circumstances for individuals affected. We have fully cooperated with ASIC's investigation and are carefully reviewing the claim.

"Equity Trustees takes its compliance obligations very seriously and has robust processes in place to uphold the best interests of members."

Equity Trustees will keep the market informed in accordance with its disclosure obligations.

The Managing Director has authorised this release.
