New appointment expands Corporate Trust and Securitisation team

Australia's leading trustee company Equity Trustees today announced its latest appointment to the growing Corporate Trust and Securitisation team: Pei Cai Pan will be based in Sydney as a Manager in the middle office team.

The Equity Trustees Corporate Trust and Securitisation business specialises in providing agency and trustee services to the debt capital and loan markets, securitisation industry as well as real estate trustee services.

Pei has more than 10 years of experience in securitisation and structured finance, most recently as a Vice President and Client Services Manager with the Bank of New York Mellon where his portfolio included global institutional clients with products ranging from conventional debt issuance and asset/mortgaged backed securitisation through to complex cross-border securitisations.

"Equity Trustees is attracting high quality clients in this specialised area of service," said James Connell, General Manager of Corporate Trust and Securitisation, Corporate Trustee Services.

"Pei brings with him an abundance of experience which will be focussed on our developing Debt Capital and Loan Market business where he will be responsible for on-boarding new business, daily transaction administration and compliance monitoring for our clients."
