Full Application: Henryk Kitaszewski Foundation 2026

Grant Information

The Henryk Kitaszewski Foundation aims to provide students of Polish descent with opportunities to engage with and become familiar with Polish community organisations. This engagement is intended to help students understand the role these organisations play in meeting the needs of the Polish community, thereby deepening their understanding of Polish culture and the community itself. At the same time, it provides the student(s) the opportunity to gain expertise to advance their career path. It provides Polish Community organisations with the opportunity to engage additional resources to complete vital initiatives to assist the organisation to flourish.

In completing this application, please refer to information about the aim and objectives of the Henryk Kitaszewski Foundation and information on what activities will not be funded. This information is available in the Grant Information Pack HERE
