

Consent for Joining our Talent Pool

Consent for applicants in Malaysia

October 14, 2025

Introduction

This consent is for you, in case you did not find a position at Exyte yet, want to make an account on the career site, be considered for other positions, if we could not offer you the position you applied for or you sent us an unsolicited application and we could not offer you the perfect position right away.

Sometimes, you just don't find the right job on the first search and for us it is often hard to choose the right person from many qualified applicants and sometimes only small objective qualifications make the difference.

Don't worry though if there has not been a perfect match yet. As a fast-growing innovative company, we always need talents and the next position will be coming up soon.

We would therefore like to invite you to join our Talent Pool. In the Talent Pool we keep our promising candidates. This way, we will come back to you if we think you might be the right candidate for a position, inform you regularly about new positions and keep you up to date with developments.

However, for this purpose we need your consent to process your personal data and to contact you if we think we have found a suiting position for you or to keep you up to date with developments at Exyte.

Attached to the consent, we also provide you with required and useful information about how we process your data.

Instead of this Talent Pool consent for applicants in Malaysia, a different (global or country-specific) version of this consent may apply to you if you visit this career website from other countries. Please see the list of relevant countries here.

1. Consent

We (Exyte Management GmbH in Germany, in the following “Exyte”, “we” or “us”) intend to process the personal data you provided us or another Exyte entity (please see all entities under this link) or which we or another Exyte entity collected about you when visiting our website, interacting with our chatbot, making an account or applying for another position and possibly subsequently during the application process to find other (future) suitable positions for you and contact you accordingly and in various manners, such as email, SMS or Chat about suiting jobs, campaigns and developments at Exyte. We then will use the data you provided us with for the application for the new suiting position. Please note that this does not guarantee you a position.

We will further contact you with campaigns for jobs at the Exyte Group.

Further we may contact you to renew this consent from time to time.

By checking the box or clicking the button, you consent that Exyte may process your personal data for the purpose as stated above. You will find the data processing information on how we process personal data during the application process under the following link.

The personal data encompasses all personal data, which we or another Exyte entity collected about you, you provided to us while making an account, when interacting with the chatbot, or using our website or during the application or respectively the application process, other data we collected during the application process and may include sensitive or special categories of personal data (such as data on health, religion, or criminal records – please see the Data Protection Information for more information).

We may use automated and learning algorithms to find matching jobs to you considering the collected data. The algorithm is learning which positions may be most interesting for you.

Processing will include storage at, processing by and sharing of personal data with all entities of the Exyte Group, which you can find under this link to consider you for positions worldwide. Your consent extends to such transfer, also outside the European Economic Area.

For the purpose of suggesting jobs to you, we will collect personal data from your previous applications and your website use. You will find information about our data collection on the website under this link. Based on this data we use algorithms to suggest suiting positions.

Exyte Management GmbH and other entities of the Exyte Group are located outside the European Economic Area (“EEA”) and of Malaysia, some of them in countries which do not have the same data protection level as Malaysia or the EEA, whereas the EEA and Malaysia do not consider each other to have the same level of data protection respectively. However, all members of the Exyte Group signed a Data Processing and Join Controller Agreement (“DPJCA”) and are subject to a Group Wide Privacy Policy in order to protect your personal data (please find more information below) and thereby protect your personal data outside the EEA. The DPJCA includes the standard contractual clauses according to the European Commission to safeguard your personal data.

By clicking the respective consent button or check box, you further consent that Exyte may share your personal data with Exyte Group companies located outside Malaysia and the EEA. When applying for a position in such country other than Malaysia, the respective laws of that country will apply. These country-specific laws may provide you with other or less rights in terms of your personal data.

Your CV and Application information will be available instantly to all of the entities upon your consent and you will be matched to all suiting positions.

This consent is voluntary and does not have any effect on current or future applications. You can revoke this consent at any time.

Processing of personal data before your revocation is not affected by the revocation.

You will find additional information about processing your personal data below on the next page.

2. Additional Data Protection Information for the Talent Pool

2.1. Controller

For storing your personal data in the Talent Pool and transferring your personal data to entities with suiting positions the controller is:

Exyte Management GmbH
Löwentorstraße 42
70376 Stuttgart
Germany

Phone: +49(0) 8804-0

www.exyte.net

info@exyte.net

(hereinafter “Exyte”, “we”, “our”, “us”)

Please note that if we transfer your personal data to another entity which may have a suiting position, such entity will become controller.

2.2. Data Protection Officer

We have appointed a Data Protection Officer (“DPO”). You can reach the DPO under the following email address: privacy@exyte.net.

Please feel free to contact the DPO in case of any questions, complaints, inquiries or suggestions regarding processing Personal Data at any Exyte entity.

2.3. Personal Data we process based on your consent

The personal data we process will be the personal data we or the entity applied at collected during the application process, when visiting our career website, when making an account or when interacting with us. You will find more information about the personal processing for the respective entity under this link. If your entity is not an EEA entity and does not provide detailed information about processing personal data, you can refer to the data processing information for the purpose and the categories of personal data for EEA entities for the purpose of this consent. We are combining this data with your interaction data on our website, as listed here.

2.4. Purpose of processing Personal Data

The purpose is to stay in contact with you as well as provide you with information about suitable positions respectively match suiting positions to you. Further we will simplify your future application process, as we use the data we already store about you and do not have to collect everything again.

In addition, we want to use your information to organize and improve our hiring process, improve attraction of our job offers and run campaigns to advertise jobs.

2.5. Legal basis

The legal basis is your consent,

- to the extent the European General Data Protection Regulation (“GDPR”) applies, in accordance with Art. 6 Sec. 1 lit a) GDPR or Art. 9 Sec II lit. a GDPR for special categories of personal data;

- to the extent the Malaysian Personal Data Protection Act 2010 (“PDPA”) applies, in accordance with this Act.

2.6. Revocation of your consent

You may revoke your consent at any time, in which case we will stop processing your Personal Data. Processing of Personal Data until your revocation of consent remains legal.

The easiest way to revoke your consent by specifying in an email, which consent you wish to revoke and send it to TalentAcquisition@exyte.net.

Please note that the revocation in regard to the talent pool does not affect processing based on other legal basis in connection with your application, such as for tax or compliance purposes. Please see the link for the application data processing information for further information.

2.7. Transfer of Personal Data

We may transfer Personal Data between Exyte affiliates within the Exyte Group based on your consent. Please see your consent above. Otherwise we will only transfer your personal data, if required by a law or in the circumstances as described in our Application Data Protection information under this link.

2.8. Duration of processing

In compliance with the PDPA, your data will only be retained for as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes for which it was collected, or to meet applicable legal, regulatory, or business requirements. Thereafter, the data will be securely deleted or anonymized.

We will process your Personal Data in the talent pool until you revoke your consent or usually up to two years. However, we may delete your personal data earlier.

In exceptional cases, we may have to store your Personal Data longer, e.g. in case of compliance investigations. Please note that this does not affect the duration of processing for other purposes, as stated in our data protection information for your application or on other occasions.

Please see our general Data Processing Information for Applicants for additional information regarding the processing of your personal data.
