

Transform your mortgage post-closing process

Digitize | Store | Automate | Unlock

Challenge

Declining mortgage origination revenue is driving operational cost reductions and third-party outsourcing

US mortgage originators are experiencing reduced loan volumes and less revenue due to higher interest rates and intense competition. The Mortgage Bankers Association reported that independent mortgage banks and mortgage subsidiaries of chartered banks lost $1,972 on each loan they originated in the first quarter of 2023. Losses, along with an intensifying regulatory environment, an emerging hybrid workforce, and pressure to reduce operational costs, are leading companies to outsource their physical footprint and find automated solutions to streamline and digitize processes.

Managed services solution

Accelerate outsourcing of a cost-effective and automated mortgage post-close process

Remain compliant and maintain collateral security with our end-to-end mortgage post-closing managed service offering. Made up of expertly trained teams, digital mortgage accelerator processes, and an intelligent software-as-a-service (SaaS) technology platform called Iron Mountain InSight® Digital Experience Platform (DXP), this bundled offering gives you the opportunity to:

- + Reduce and scale opex costs in line with revenue streams
- + Improve loan quality and delivery timelines to investors
- + Unlock valuable knowledge from your data for new revenue-generating activity
- + Maintain investor and regulatory compliance by driving quality

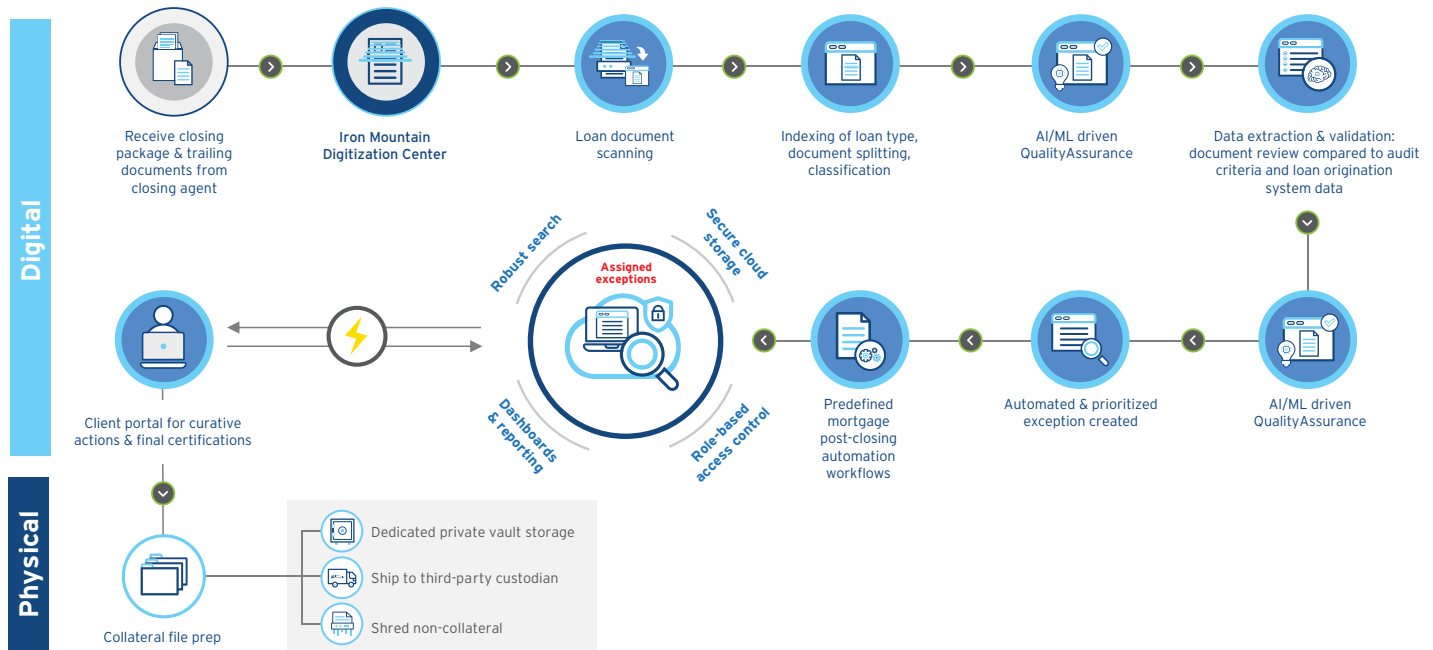

Being able to digitize, classify, extract, and validate loan data bridges unstructured mortgage content into structured data that supports the authenticity, accuracy, and completeness of the loan.

How it works

End-to-end secure and auditable chain of custody to protect and preserve your business value.

What you gain
