

What if you could...

1 Receive faster access to your stored documents

Instead of having your documents delivered by a truck, have them scanned and delivered electronically!

3 Reduce risk

Protect your original documents from damage or loss by receiving electronic access to your information through a secure content repository.

Help The Environment

5

Reduce the number of truck-base deliveries and switch to a more green electronic delivery.

2 Improve flexibility

Enable collaboration by easily sharing information with those who need it at all locations.

4 Minimize cost

Instead of having to deliver the same files multiple times, just scan once and then share the electronic file.

Iron Mountain Can Help

Just select the Electronic Delivery option using our Image on Demand service to access physical records and documents that you have stored in an Iron Mountain Record Center. This enables fast, secure electronic access to your documents wherever and whenever you need them – faster and easier than physical delivery, and more eco-friendly too!
