

AIFMD Marketing – Article 42 Overview

This interactive map shows where a third country AIFM is permitted to market an AIF within the EEA and the UK, including a high level overview, for each country, to show whether (i) marketing under Article 42 of the Directive is available, (ii) an approval of the local regulator is required and, if so, any further details applicable to such approval (eg, timing), (iii) the relevant EEA state or the UK has exercised its right to impose additional requirements on the relevant third country AIFM (referred to as “goldplating”, eg, requiring a depositary to be appointed), and (iv) pre-marketing rules in CBDF have been applied to such AIFMs.

Hover over the country names for more information

Key: Has Article 42 been implemented? If so, what is the process required before marketing can begin?

Yes – simple process. No approval required.

Yes – approval and/or additional process required.

Yes – goldplated, burdensome requirements.

No – Article 42 not implemented or not possible to satisfy.

