Liontrust appoints Head of Distribution for Switzerland

Liontrust, the specialist asset management company, has strengthened its distribution capability in continental Europe with the appointment of Òscar Andreu as Managing Director, Head of Distribution for Switzerland AG.

Òscar, who is based in Zurich, will distribute Liontrust's Irish-domiciled Global Funds (GF) range to the wholesale and institutional markets. These include pension funds, private and retail banks, wealth managers, independent asset managers, and unit-linked businesses of insurance companies.

The Liontrust GF range includes: the Liontrust European long only and long/short strategies managed by the Cashflow Solution team; the GF Global Alpha Long Short Fund managed by Mark Hawtin; Sustainable equity and fixed income funds that are all Article 9 under the EU's SFDR (Sustainable Finance Disclosures Regulation); and three recently launched Global Innovation funds.

Òscar has joined Liontrust from Titanbay where he was Head of the DACH Region, responsible for establishing and growing the company's private markets business across Switzerland, Germany and Austria. Previously, Òscar spent nearly nine years as HSBC Global Asset Management's Head of Wholesale, Director at BlackRock, and Head of Sales for Fidelity Worldwide Investments and UBS Wealth Management.

John Ions, Chief Executive Officer of Liontrust, commented: "As the third largest funds market in Europe, having a distribution presence in Switzerland is a really important addition to our international expansion.

"Òscar brings a wealth of experience and has a long proven track record of distributing funds in Switzerland. His knowledge of and deep relationships with the institutional and wholesale markets will help enhance our profile, distribution and client service in the country."

Òscar Andreu added: "I am excited about joining Liontrust and the opportunities to build our business in Switzerland.

"Liontrust has a very strong brand in the UK and impressive investment teams with good long-term performance. I believe distributors will have confidence in both the fund managers and their robust processes, as well as the client service Liontrust Switzerland AG will be able to provide."
