

Michigan Health Policy Forum
November 19, 2019
Radisson Hotel, Lansing Michigan

Michigan's Aging Population:
Increasing Demand for Health Services and Innovation in an Aging Michigan

As the number of elderly adults continues to increase in Michigan, it places increasing demands on our health care system and requires new and innovative ways to meet those demands. Please join our panel of experts to learn how the Michigan health care system will change in response to the needs of an aging population.

Michigan
Health
Policy
Forum

965 Wilson Road,
A135
East Lansing, MI
48824-1316
(517) 353-1664
(517) 432-9977 fax
michiganhpf.msu.edu

1:00 Call to Order and Introductions:

Randolph Rasch PhD, Dean, MSU College of Nursing

1:15 Keynote Address:

Jeffrey Kullgren, MD, Associate Director of the National Poll on Healthy Aging, UM Institute for Healthcare Policy and Innovation.

2:00 Break

2:15 Panel Presentations

Moderator: Rep. Angela Witwer, Michigan House of Representatives District 71

Paula Cunningham, MLIR, Director, AARP Michigan

Alexis Travis PhD, MDHHS Senior Deputy Director of Aging and Adult Services

Clare Luz PhD, Director of Research, Department of Family and Community Medicine, MSUCOM and Director of IMPART Alliance

Michelle Moccia DNP, ANP-BC, Program Director Level One Senior ER, St. Mary Hospital, Livonia Michigan

3:30 Discussion and Question and Answer

3:55 Concluding Comments: Dennis Paradis MPH, Executive Director, Michigan Health Policy Forum

4:00 Adjourn