LEADERSHIP LABS

WEEK ONE

During the second lab, Spartan Battalion cadets honed their combat readiness for FTX by practicing cold load procedures and receiving an operational briefing on the STX lanes they would be executing, along with land navigation.

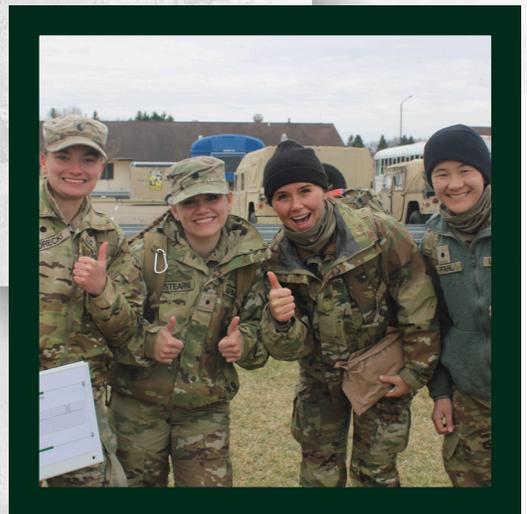

Refreshed after Spring Break, all three companies conducted STX lanes featuring MTC, Raid, and Patrol Base operations. Training focused on refining tactical responses to mass casualty scenarios.

WEEK TWO

SPRING FTX

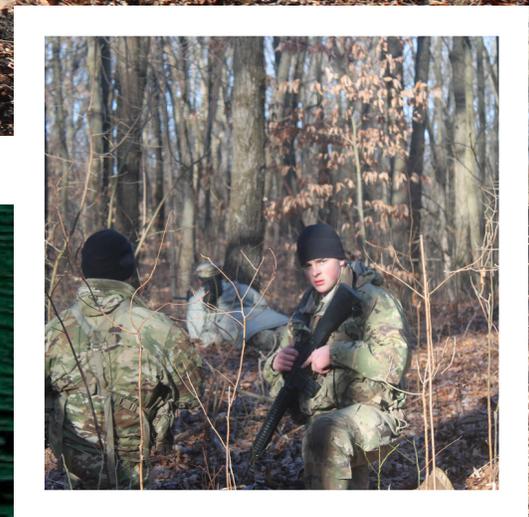

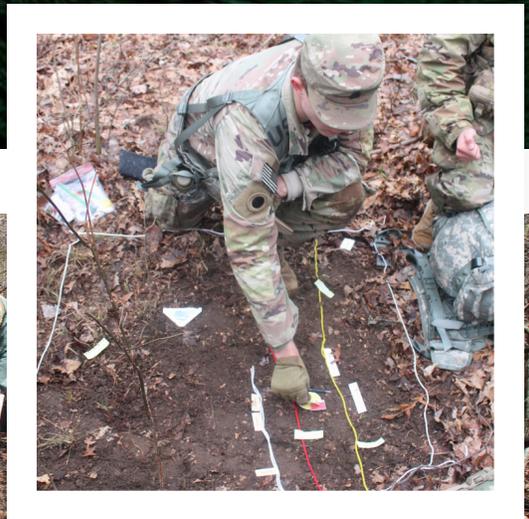

Day 1

On day one of Spring FTX, Spartan Battalion had the opportunity to apply their cold load training by flying to Fort Custer on UH-60 Black Hawks. Additionally, Cadets put their skills to the test with day and night land navigation.

SPRING FTX

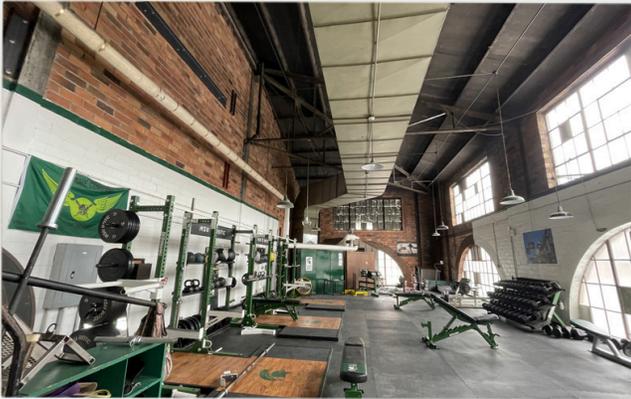

Day 2 & 3

On Days 2 and 3 of FTX, Spartan cadets applied what they had learned during lab by completing five STX lanes.

Spartan cadets, alongside Ferris State and CMU cadets, demonstrated their leadership skills through a Raid, Attack, Ambush, MTC, and Patrol Base.
