

Stand with Survivors on

Denim Day

Wednesday, April 29

Denim Day is a visible way to show solidarity with survivors of sexual assault and challenge myths that place blame on victims.

Join Spartans by wearing denim and sending a clear message: survivors are believed, supported, and not alone.

Wear denim on April 29 and show your support. Share a photo on social media using #DenimDay and tag @MSUCenterforSurvivors on Instagram and Facebook.

