

RCPD Audio Recording Agreement

Dear Student:

You have been approved for the following accommodation:

Access to audio recording course lecture

- This is a unique accommodation granted to mitigate some of the impacts of your disability. By signing this letter, you are agreeing not to redistribute or share the recorded presentation materials with anyone else. This is your accommodation only. Sharing of audio recording content during study sessions is permitted. However, turning over these audio recordings for another's independent use, or making copies of these audio recordings and distributing them for other's independent use, is strictly prohibited.
- If the audio recordings are redistributed or shared with anyone else, the matter will be referred to the student conduct system at the Office of Student Support and Accountability (OSSA). The purpose of the student conduct system is to support the educational mission of the University while protecting the rights and responsibilities of students. Students who are accused of violating University standards which govern their conduct may be referred to the student conduct system for review.

Student Signature

Date