

ASIAN AMERICAN STUDIES GUEST LECTURER SERIES

EVERYONE WELCOME!!

INFORMAL "BROWN BAG" LUNCH PRIOR TO LECTURES AT 11:45 am
IN THE MULTICULTURAL CENTER

FRIDAY APRIL 23, 1999

1:00 pm at the Multicultural Center
MSU Union (cafeteria level)

"SPECTATOR NO MORE: KOREAN AMERICAN
POLITICAL FORMATION IN LOS ANGELES, 1992-98"

EDWARD PARK

Department of Sociology
University of Southern California

FRIDAY APRIL 30, 1999

1:00 pm at the Multicultural Center
MSU Union (cafeteria level)

"AN IMPERFECT AESTHETICS OF SURVIVAL:
EVERYDAY STRUGGLES IN THE FILIPINO QUEER
DIASPORA IN NEW YORK CITY"

MARTIN MANALANSAN

Asian American Studies Program & Institute
New York University

For more info, please call Maggie Chen Hernandez: 432-7153

The Graduate Asian American Partnership proudly presents:

HELEN ZIA

“Spies Like Us: Emergent Asian American Voices & the New Diversity”

Friday, November 3, 2000

2:30 p.m.

MSU Union Parlor Rm C (2nd floor)

Book Sale & Signing immediately following

Helen Zia, one of Asian America's greatest champions for justice, empowerment, and activism, will speak about Asian America in the new millenium; How Asian Americans are emerging as equal partners with other communities of color, women, and gays & lesbians in their increasingly diverse society to reclaim and reconstruct their intertwined and interdependent histories that have been for so many years: “MIH” – Missing in History.

Sponsored by

COGS, School of Journalism, the Asian American Studies Guest Lecturer Series,

APASO, ALANA, American Studies Program, VP for Student Affairs & Services, APAFSA

Asian American Studies Guest Lecturer Series

PRESENTS

Grace Lee Boggs

Community Activist & Author

FRIDAY, MARCH 30, 2001
Multicultural Center, MSU Union
1:00 pm --2:00 pm

Grace Lee Boggs will share her experiences of being an activist, specifically in the African American community of Detroit, Michigan, and her thoughts on the Asian American movement.

For more information or questions, please call Tom Nishi at: 353-7745 or Maggie Chen Hernandez at: 432-7153.

Building Diaspora- An Exploration of Filipino Identity on the Internet

Filipinos, though marked by over 400 years of colonization, are not merely puppets in the global stage, nor plagued by an overwhelming "colonial mentality" as is often written.

Emily Noelle Ignacio
Assistant Professor of Sociology
Loyola University Chicago
Department of Sociology and Anthropology

Time: 1:00 PM
Place: Multicultural Center, MSU Union, Cafeteria level
For questions or more information, please contact:
Maggie Chen-Hernandez 432-7153 or Thomas M. Nishi 353-7745

*Sponsored by
Office of the Provost, Multicultural Center, and the Office of Racial Ethnic Student Affairs*

Asian American Family – circa 1920s

Asian American Studies Guest Lecturer Series
presents

Barbara Kim,
Intercollegiate Dept of Asian American Studies
Claremont Colleges, California

"Visibility & Invisibility: Race, Space & Identity Issues amongst Asian Americans in Southeastern Michigan"

Friday February 23, 2001
Multicultural Center
2:00 – 3:30 pm

For more information, please call: Maggie Chen-Hernandez: 432-7153 or Thomas M. Nishi: 353-7745