

College of Education
MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

Social Justice in the Classroom: Insights from GECP & UECP Alumni

TUESDAY, MARCH 25, 2025
5 PM - 7 PM IN ERICKSON 252

Guest Speakers

MOIRA THOMAS

Moira is an assistant principal at a bilingual Spanish Immersion school in Southwest Detroit, serving the Detroit Public Schools Community District. A dedicated educator and former upper elementary teacher and teacher leader, she is passionate about fostering inclusive, multilingual learning environments. Moira is a proud graduate of Michigan State University's Urban Educators Cohort Program (UECP), Class of 2014.

TERYN HENDERSON

Teryn is the Justice, Belonging, Culture, and Well-Being Specialist at Holt Public Schools. Before serving in this role, Teryn also spent one year as a Teacher of English to Speakers of Other Languages working with students in kindergarten through 12th grade and spent four years as a high school Spanish teacher. Teryn graduated from Michigan State University's Global Educator Cohort Program in 2017.

REGISTRATION BY NOON
FRIDAY, MARCH 21, 2025

DINNER PROVIDED

Join us for a
GECP & UECP Alumni
Guest Speaker event,
where past cohort
members now working in the field will share their experiences, insights, and advice for future educators. Enjoy food and drinks while engaging in meaningful conversations and getting your questions answered!

Welcome to all students in the Teacher Preparation Program!