Amendment to Law School Application/Update Student File Requests

Students are solely responsible for ensuring that the information they submitted on their law school application and the information in their student file matches the information submitted on the Bar exam application.

You “amend” your law student application if there was an omission of information that should have been included at the time you applied to law school. You “update” your file if an event occurred after submitting your law school application.

You must submit an explanation in proper letter format addressed to the Senior Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, located in the CARE Suite, Room 230E.

Glen Staszewski
Professor of Law and
Associate Dean for Academic Affairs
