Faculty Affiliate Application

MSU faculty members whose research involves judicial decisions, legislation, or administrative regulations are eligible to become Law College faculty affiliates.

Faculty affiliates are interested in engaging intellectually with the Law College by attending symposia, speakers, or other public events at the College; presenting research at the College; and informing the College of events in your college that our faculty and students may find interesting.

To the extent possible, faculty affiliates commit to submitting at least one paper every other year to the Law College for addition to the College's series on the SSRN-Legal Scholarship Network and to the College's institutional repository on Digital Commons.

The Law College will publish a list of affiliated faculty (including a photo, short bio, and link to your faculty profile) on the College website. The College will encourage research collaboration between full-time College faculty and faculty affiliates.

To apply, complete and submit this form and a current CV to dbt@law.msu.edu, preferably by April 1. Applications will be reviewed by the Associate Dean for Faculty and Intellectual Life on an ongoing basis.

Does the faculty profile contain a photograph we may import to our own website?
(Yes/No) If not, please submit an appropriate digital file with your application.

Summarize your research agenda including the components related to law. Limit this response to roughly 100 words; your response to this question may be posted on the Law College website.

How does your research engage law (judicial decisions, legislation, or administrative regulation)? Your response to this question is for application purposes only and should fit within the area immediately below. Narrative will be substantially more helpful than a list of publications.
