

Displaced Sudan: THE COST OF SILENCE

The MSU College of Law is pleased to invite you to the opening of its latest art exhibition. It is a two-part, combined exhibition with a common opening reception to be held on Thursday, October 19, 2006 at 4:00pm.

Both shows will be on display through the end of November.

Displaced Sudan: The Cost of Silence

A photographic documentary by Ryan Spencer Reed

This exhibition includes 35 photographs and will be displayed on the 3rd floor exhibition area and 4th floor (adjacent to elevators).

Comments by the photo journalist Ryan Reed will take place at 4:30pm in the 4th floor atrium.

This project has received generous support from the Michigan State University's College of Law and James Madison College as well as Michigan State University's Jewish Studies Program, the African Studies Center, and the Center for Advanced Study of International Development.

To get a glimpse of what you will see go to:

<http://www.groupm35.com/reed/sudan/index.php>

... for additional information contact ...

Nicholas Mercurio, Professor of Law in Residence, Michigan State University College of Law, East Lansing, MI 48824, phone: (517) 432-6978, cell: (517) 449-6514, mercurio@law.msu.edu

In conjunction with groupM35

