	D+ = 1.33
	D = 1.00
	D- = 0.67
	F = 0

No credits are attached to “I”, “W”, “E”, “F” or “Au”. For purposes of GPA computation, hours are counted only for graded courses and for those pass/fail courses in which an “F” is earned.

The grades of “A”, “B”, “C”, “D”, and “F” represent excellent, very good, good, inadequate, but passing and failure respectively. The grade “I” represents incomplete. It signifies that the student was unable to take the final exam for reasons beyond his/her control. The grade “H” indicates passing with honors. The grade “W” indicates that the students withdrew. The grade “P” represents pass and the grade “F” represents fail. The notation “Au” signifies audit.
