10 COMMENTS

If the student failed the CPE component of the clerkship or failed the clerkship due to 4 or more unprofessional behavior notations, the Clerkship Director has provided an explanation below:

PROFESSIONAL BEHAVIOR

To PASS this component, a student must demonstrate consistent professional behavior in clinical settings as evaluated on the Clinical Performance Evaluation (CPE), as well as in non-clinical settings and interactions. In addition to any unprofessionalism notations on the CPE, students will receive one unprofessional behavior notation on the FCE for each instance of unexcused absence, late submission of assignments, late submission of clerkship evaluations, lack of civility towards clerkship staff or others, and any other unprofessional behaviors not recorded on the CPE. All clinical departments use the same criteria for determining the grade for Professional Behavior:

PASS: No more than 1 unprofessional behavior notations for all clerkship components combined.

CONDITIONAL PASS: 2-3 unprofessional behavior notations for all clerkship components combined.

NO PASS: 4 or more unprofessional behavior notations for all clerkship components combined.

11* Number of CPE unprofessional behavior notations (from CPE Summary):

Range from 0 to 20

12* Number of non-clinical unprofessional behavior notations (and explanation if number is 1 or more):

Range from 0 to 20
