

ERIN BIRKELAND

ASA, MAAA

Associate Actuary

erin.birkeland@milliman.com

+1 206 5045486

Current Responsibility

Erin Birkeland is an actuary specializing in healthcare with Milliman's Seattle office. She joined the firm in 2021.

Professional Work Experience

Erin has experience working with a variety of value-based care arrangements in the Medicare, Medicaid, and commercial markets. She enjoys helping clients solve challenging problems supported by the most appropriate data. Her recent projects include:

- Effectiveness studies and ROI evaluations for care management organizations and digital health companies
- Support for provider groups in Medicare risk-sharing programs, including MSSP, REACH, and CKCC
- Provider reimbursement benchmarking
- MA bid development and D-SNP feasibility analysis
- Total cost of care reporting for state Medicaid value-based care programs

Professional Designations

- Associate, Society of Actuaries
- Member, American Academy of Actuaries

Education

BS, Actuarial Science, University of St. Thomas

Presentations and Publications

- MSSP minimum savings/\(loss\) rates: A double-edged sword \(milliman.com\)
- Medicares Kidney Care Choices \(KCC\) Model: A focus on Comprehensive Kidney Care Contracting \(CKCC\) \(milliman.com\)