AMY BRACKNEY

Actuarial Analyst

amy.brackney@milliman.com

+1 713 658 3032

Current Responsibility

Amy Brackney is an actuarial analyst in the Houston office of Milliman. She joined the firm in 2021.

Professional Work Experience

Amy has worked in the employee benefits field since 2016, with prior experience at Buck Consultants and Gallagher Benefit Services. Amy assists a wide variety of clients with funding requirements and financial reporting of their retirement plans.

Her expertise includes:

- Actuarial valuations and financial disclosures for defined benefit and retiree medical plans
- Ongoing plan administration, including benefit calculations and government filings
- Nondiscrimination testing for defined contribution plans

Professional Designations

Amy is currently pursuing her Associate designation with the Society of Actuaries.

Education

BS, Applied Mathematics, concentration in Actuarial Science, Texas A&M University

Milliman