

Steven W. Cottle

Consultant

CURRENT RESPONSIBILITY

Steven Cottle is an investment consultant with the San Francisco office of Milliman. He joined the firm in 2007.

EXPERIENCE

Steven's responsibilities include making presentations at client board meetings, conducting investment research projects, evaluating manager and search activity, preparing performance analysis reports, and other general consulting responsibilities. Steven was instrumental in moving client reporting to a new performance measurement system and improving the efficiency of the firm's analytical performance capability.

Steven is a CFA level II candidate.

EDUCATION

- BA, History and Global Studies, University of California at Santa Barbara
- MSc, Economic History, Lund University, Sweden

