Current Responsibility

Jeremy manages the written expression of Milliman's intellectual capital. This includes helping consultants make actuarial and technical concepts understandable to a wider business audience and translating consulting expertise into effective written and digital communications. He also works with the media and in a public affairs capacity.

Professional Work Experience

Jeremy has been working with technical professionals to communicate the business value of their ideas and inventions since 1999. He joined Milliman in 2004 and has since managed an ongoing firm-wide editorial initiative. In 2002, Jeremy founded Inkslinger Consulting, a sole proprietorship writing company servicing small- to medium-sized businesses in the greater Seattle area.

Professional Designations

Management of Milliman's print publications and digital media ecosystem.
