Current Responsibility

Adam Feller is a principal and consulting actuary with the Milwaukee office of Milliman. He joined the firm in 2016.

Professional Work Experience

Adam has more than 12 years of experience as a healthcare actuary. He has worked with a variety of organizations across the industry, primarily in the Medicare Advantage and pharmacy and life sciences spaces.

In the Medicare Advantage market, Adam assists plan sponsors with Part D bid preparation, certification, and strategic analyses. He has experience analyzing the impact of proposed regulatory changes and contributes to Milliman's Part D research efforts around Prescription Drug Plans.

In the pharmacy and life sciences spaces, Adam has worked with entities across the supply chain, including manufacturers, pharmacies, and wholesalers. He assists these organizations with questions related to market access, contracting and payment strategy, and understanding the Medicare Part D program.

Prior to joining Milliman, Adam worked for a national health insurance company, focusing primarily on modeling, forecasting, and rate development in the commercial ACA market.
