Current Responsibility

As a principal and director of Clinical Services at IntelliScript, Dan Fleischman inspires a shared clinical vision and strategy for our suite of clinical interpretation tools and removes barriers for the department to execute that vision.

Professional Work Experience

Dan is a pharmacist with nine years of health system pharmacy experience. He was trained as a hospital clinical pharmacist and had the opportunity to manage a team of eight pharmacists at a hospital pharmacy before joining Milliman IntelliScript in 2017 as a pharmacy consultant. Dan was given the opportunity to move into people leadership at IntelliScript as a manager in 2021, and then as a director in 2023.

Professional Designations
