Current Responsibility

Aaron Herrera is a Milliman onsite retirement educator dedicated to helping our Hawai'i Pacific Health employees plan for and achieve future financial goals. He facilitates webinar, in-person, and virtual consultations designed to provide retirement education and advance the understanding of plan benefits. He works closely with Hawai'i Pacific Health's Human Resource Team to ensure successful execution of initiatives and campaigns. He joined Milliman in 2020.

Professional Work Experience

Aaron served in the United States Air Force as a structural engineer prior to starting in the retirement industry in 2012. Aaron has several years of financial services experience, providing retirement education and previously held FINRA Series 6 and 26. Throughout his career, he has led numerous internal and external education events, webinars, and countless individual consultations.
