

MATTIAS JOHANSSON

Director of Software Development

mattias.johansson@milliman.com

+1 214 863 5172

Current Responsibility

Mattias Johansson is a director of software development with the Milliman Employee Benefits Administration and Consulting Practice in Atlanta. He provides strategic development direction, oversight, and leadership to the software engineering staff. He joined the firm in 2023.

Professional Work Experience

Mattias is a senior software development leader with a deep and broad background in software development, specializing in AI, cloud-native, and cybersecurity solutions. His extensive leadership experience includes building and improving high-performing globally distributed product teams, establishing robust development methodologies, and implementing AI in multiple prominent products. He has a deep understanding of the latest technologies and a track record of innovation, including several patents.

Professional Designations

- Project Management Professional
- AccEL Executive Leadership Program
- Capability Maturity Model Integration
- Enterprise Design Thinking

Education

- Machine Learning and AI Engineering, Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT)
- MS (Engineering Management), University of Central Florida (UCF)
- BS (Mechanical Engineering), University of Borås