Current Responsibility

Billy Onion is an associate actuary with Milliman's Dallas Property & Casualty Practice. He currently provides consulting services to captives, insurance companies, risk-retention groups, and self-insured entities. Billy joined Milliman in 2003.

Professional Work Experience

Billy began his actuarial consulting career with Scruggs Consulting in 1998, where his responsibilities included reserving, pricing, and funding of various property and casualty lines for both insurance companies and self-insured entities. Billy also worked in the pricing and reserving departments for TIG Insurance Company prior to coming to Milliman.

Billy currently assists a variety of self-insured clients with reserve and funding analyses for workers compensation, general liability, auto, medical malpractice, directors and officers, and errors and omissions programs. In addition, he assists insurance companies and risk retention groups with reserve and pricing analyses for a variety of personal and commercial lines, including auto, homeowners, workers compensation, general liability, and medical malpractice coverages. Billy also provides actuarial support to state regulators for statutory financial examinations, rate filing reviews, and litigation.
