Current Responsibility

Jordan Rosenfeld is a portfolio manager within the Portfolio Management Group of Milliman's Financial Risk Management (FRM) Practice in Chicago. He serves as portfolio manager or portfolio consultant for a variety of 1940 Act investment structures, such as exchange-traded funds, mutual funds, and unit investment trusts. The FRM Practice manages hedging strategies and provides advisory services to insurance companies, pensions, endowments, and asset managers with more than $150 billion in combined account value.

Professional Work Experience

Jordan has eight years of experience in capital markets with a focus on derivatives portfolio management and multi-asset strategy. Prior to joining Milliman, Jordan was a proprietary trader at Gelber Group, where he managed a global macro portfolio consisting of equity, interest rate, and foreign exchange derivatives.
