

Hayley Rogers

FSA, MAAA

Consulting Actuary

Current Responsibility

Hayley Rogers is a consulting actuary with the Seattle office of Milliman. She joined the firm in 2008.

Professional Work Experience

Hayley is responsible for managing a wide variety of clients, projects, and products. Her clients include insurance companies, managed care organizations, state government agencies, and stop loss carriers. Types of clients supported include:

- Medicare Advantage plans
- State Medicaid agencies
- Commercial health insurers
- Stop loss pricing
- The Department of Veterans Affairs

Her consulting assignments have included:

- Evaluating and certifying liabilities and assets for several insurers as part of annual statutory financial submissions.
- Preparing Medicare Advantage bids for multiple organizations, including both standard actuarial functions and strategic support. This work has been completed on behalf of Institutional Special Need Plans (I-SNPs) and general enrollment plans.
- Developing COVID-19 projection models, leading Milliman's COVID-19 impact research, and assisting clients project the medical impact through 2022.
- Calculating capitation rates for multiple state Medicaid agencies.

Professional Designation

- Member, American Academy of Actuaries, 2013
- Fellow, Society of Actuaries (FSA), 2016
- Milliman Global Health Practice Director Outstanding Service Award, 2020

Education

BA, Applied Mathematics and Economics – Whitman College, 2008

Presentations and Publications

- Article: Estimating the impact of COVID-19 on healthcare costs in 2020: Key factors of the cost trajectory 23 April 2020 - By Hayley Rogers, Charlie Mills, Matthew Kramer
- Webinar: Estimating the impact of COVID-19 on healthcare costs in 2020
- Video: People everywhere: How 2020 has us living our mission like never before. From theory to the front lines: one healthcare consultant's harrowing COVID-19 story.

