

New York Power Authority in New York City

At a Glance

- Our largest customer is the City of New York
- Cleaner & Greener—we helped build the city's largest solar roof at the Javits Center
- ReCharge NY customers including Calvary Hospital (Bronx), JP Morgan Chase & Co. (Brooklyn), Lincoln Center (Manhattan), Steinway & Sons (Queens) & Staten Island University Hospital, use NYPA's lower-cost power for economic development initiatives
- EVolve NY serves electric vehicle drivers at John F. Kennedy International Airport
- Environmental Justice provides low-income communities—where we operate—with energy education programs
- The Eugene W. Zeltmann Power Project, a clean generating plant in Astoria, helps power the city

Contact: NYCinfo@nypa.gov
Community & Government Relations

NY Power Authority

New York Power Authority

About NYPA

- Nation's largest state electric utility
- Provides lower-cost, clean energy to businesses, non-profits & government
- Supports economic development programs with 400,000+ jobs
- Generates more than 80 percent of electricity as clean, renewable hydropower
- Implements solar, wind & energy efficient technologies
- FREE visitor centers—educational & electrifying exhibits & events

Learn More
nypa.gov

