BIOFACH: the organic family is growing and thriving

Under the patronage of IFOAM – Organics International, BIOFACH guarantees the constant high quality of exhibits through strict admission criteria at all BIOFACH exhibitions worldwide. All exhibits originating from agriculture, including aquaculture, are certified to the accreditation directives of the IFOAM Family of Standards, which contains all standards officially endorsed as organic by the organic movement. The leading exhibitions in the BIOFACH World connect raw material marketplaces with international demand in 8 flourishing economic regions of the world and promote the development of regional markets at the same time.

NÜRNBERG MESSE

BIOFACH

The world's leading trade fair for organic food is an important business event, an emotional event for the sector, and both a get-together and an opportunity for positioning, taking place in Germany – the 2nd largest organic market worldwide (turnover in 2022: EUR 15.3 billion).

*Figures of BIOFACH 2025: 2,267 exhibitors from 94 countries
34,882 visitors from 140 countries*

BIOFACH AMERICA

Fast growing market – highly diversified

The US organic market is the largest worldwide. In 2022, organic food sales totaled at USD 61.7 billion. Over the past 10 years, organic sales have more than doubled as Americans are eating and using more organic products than ever before. With BIOFACH AMERICA we will host the US only purely organic trade show in Atlanta, Georgia, in June 2025, where the whole organic value chain will be covered: from organic farming to retail.

*Figures of the last edition 2023: 94 exhibitors (without Natural Products Expo East)
15,870 visitors (shared with Natural Products Expo East)*

BIOFACH AMERICA LATINA - BIO BRAZIL FAIR

The awareness of healthy and organic food chases structured food trade

Latin America is the third largest region of organic land worldwide with organic sales in Brazil amounting to around EUR 1 billion in 2022. BIOFACH AMERICA LATINA co-located with BIO BRAZIL FAIR and Naturaltech opens its doors for all members of the organic movement in Brazil who want to explore new distribution channels.

*Figures of the last edition 2024: 191 exhibitors (without Naturaltech)
46,200 visitors (shared with Naturaltech)*

BIOFACH CHINA

Growing market with high demand for safe food

Based on the FiBL survey issued during BIOFACH, China is the 3rd largest market for organic food. After 17 years of development, BIOFACH CHINA accumulates a large number of professional visitors with a qualified organic background, and will help the global organic producers to establish deep links with Chinese buyers.

Figures of the last edition 2024: 171 exhibitors and 12,469 visitors (shared with NATURAL EXPO CHINA)

BIOFACH INDIA

Organic market on the rise with growing buying power

The Indian organic food market is expected to grow at a CAGR of 25.25 % during 2022–2027, with increasing demand for herbs, spices-based value-added products and millets. The pandemic has provided a welcome boost to India's growing preference for organic foods and goods. Organic food sales have skyrocketed since March 2020, reflecting a shift in consumer values. BIOFACH INDIA is more than a trade fair and networking platform, it supplements knowledge and education through a series of programs and expert-talks.

Figures of the last edition 2024: 197 exhibitors and 6,412 visitors (shared with NATURAL EXPO INDIA)

BIOFACH JAPAN

Japan: A niche market with high potential!

Japan's low share of arable land leads to high demand of imported organic food and beverages. As the country continues to globalize and Japanese consumer awareness of organic as a concept is on the rise, there is significant potential for new growth. The size of the Japanese organic food market was 224 billion Yen in 2022. BIOFACH JAPAN is the ideal platform for international suppliers from overseas to make use of the great sales opportunities for organic products.

Figures of the last edition 2024: 62 exhibitors and 40,453 visitors (shared with GOOD LIFE Fair)

BIOFACH SAUDI ARABIA

High potential market and rising demand for organic food

The organic sector in the Middle East and North African region is developing fast. The MENA organic food market was valued at USD 7 billion in 2022 and is expected to witness significant growth also in the coming years. As one of the largest countries in the region, Saudi Arabia is investing heavily in the development of the organic sector – from rural production to shelf – and identifies this as one important key for the future.

Figures of the last edition 2024: 119 exhibitors and 7,881 visitors

BIOFACH SOUTH EAST ASIA

Gate to the South East Asian organic market

This market will play a major role in the future, both nationally and internationally, and various political initiatives are established to support this growth – BIOFACH SOUTH EAST ASIA is reflecting the organic scene in the entire region.

Figures of the last edition 2019: 403 exhibitors and 24,196 visitors (shared with NATURAL EXPO SOUTH EAST ASIA)
